

Verb to be/ Present Tense

Change the following affirmative sentences into negative form. Cambia las siguientes oraciones afirmativas a forma negativa.

Examples:

1. They are Korean.
They are not Korean.
2. My name is Nikita
My name is not Nikita.
3. Clara and Steve are married.
Clara and Steve are not married.
4. The tea is delicious.
The tea is not delicious.
5. John is an engineer.
John is not an engineer.

Exercise:

1. I am a teacher.

2. You are my best friend.

3. He is at home.

4. Allan is a doctor.

5. She is a secretary.

6. Andrea is in the office.

7. It is my new English book.

8. The car is from Mexico.

9. We are good students.

10. Chris and Allan are at the University.

11. They are at home.

12. Juan, Allan and Chris are happy.

13. You are mechanics.

14. Beto, Kevin and You are in the garage.

15. It is a computer.

Change the following affirmative and negative sentences into interrogative form.
Cambia las siguientes oraciones afirmativas y negativas a forma interrogativas.

Examples:

1. He is a boy.

Is he a boy?

2. My mother is not in the kitchen.

Is my mother in the kitchen?

3. I am a football fan.
Am I a football fan?
4. We are not busy.
Are we busy?
5. The cat is gray.
Is the cat gray?

Exercise:

1. I am not a business man.

2. You are at home.

3. He is not happy.

4. She is my best friend.

5. It is not a new book.

6. We are students.

7. Anny is not a nurse.

8. Peter and I are sale clerks.

9. Timmy and you are not in the library.

10. Richard is in the car.
